

C O P Y

THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF
Washington 25, D. C.

Joint War Plans Committee

21 July 1943.

Brig. Gen. William J. Donovan
Director, Office Strategic Services,
Washington, D. C.

Dear General Donovan:

We understand that [redacted] has applied for a position with your organization through [redacted] Acting Chief of the U.S.S.R. Division.

STAT

STAT

STAT

[redacted] While employed by the Office of Economic Warfare, [redacted] was assigned to work for this Committee for several months.

During this assignment [redacted] did excellent work in connection with studies and strategic surveys of the North Pacific, Siberia, and the U.S.S.R. in general, and we believe that he would prove to be a valuable addition to an organization that is in need of a man with his particular qualifications.

STAT

Very truly yours,

C.E. MILLER,

D. M. GRIBBON,

Secretariat.